

DWELLING TOGETHER IN UNITY

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do we mean by the words “ecumenical” and “inter-religious”?
2. What are your ecumenical and/or inter-religious experiences?
3. Do you think God expects/demands we be involved in ecumenical and/or inter-religious activities?
4. What non-Christian people or texts have inspired/uninspired you?
5. What Christian people or texts have inspired/uninspired you?
6. What can MCC Sydney learn from its Christian colleagues and friends?
(page 2, par. 5)
7. What unique perspectives or gifts do we at MCC Sydney have to offer to our Christian colleagues and friends?
8. How can we hear, respect and honour “the Buddhist, the Hindu, the Jew, the Muslim, the Agnostic, the Humanist and all others”? (page 3, par. 4)
9. What practical suggestions do you have for MCC Sydney building stronger relationships with other Christian churches and other faith communities?

Glenn Boyd
Lay Delegate
MCC Sydney, Australia
Region 1