Be MCC
MCC values inclusion, community, spiritual transformation, and social action. We are committed to spread the liberating Gospel of Jesus Christ and to respond faithfully to God’s call for justice. The context of doing justice is the creation of community and the preservation of all creation.

Become Clergy in MCC
Are you yearning to serve God and God’s people in a truly inclusive, justice-seeking Christian church?

Then ordination with MCC might be for you!

Become a Church in MCC
MCC only goes where we are invited and strives to be “post-colonial” in our values and practice. When starting new churches, MCC is flexible to the human realities and cultural differences as we seek to do justice and to build community around the world.

To invite MCC to your community, city, or nation, contact:

Become an Aligned Partner with MCC
Aligned non-governmental organizations, including congregations and denominations, share MCC values and support the mission of MCC yet do not seek to become an MCC church. Individuals from aligned organizations may participate in all activities of MCC.

To align in partnership with MCC, contact:

MCC Today is
- An inclusive Christian church committed to Christian social action, community, and salvation
- An advocate for the marginalized and oppressed
- A partner in working for positive change
- A witness calling attention to human rights abuses
- A voice for global justice
- A movement of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists in over 40 nations
- A builder of hope and co-creator of the Dominion of God!

MCC is compelled by an unfinished calling and a prophetic destiny.
We are a global movement of spiritually diverse people fully awake to God’s enduring love.
Following the example of Jesus and empowered by the Spirit, we demand, proclaim and do justice in the world.
